

the said director of public service of said city. The said meter or meters shall be purchased by the said village and the said village shall pay for the installation and maintenance of same.

(b) That all pipes or mains and appurtenances taking such water from said point of supply to said village for the distribution thereof and all service connections are to be laid, installed and maintained at the expense of said village, but conforming to the manner designated by the director of public service and in accordance with plans submitted to and approved by the director of public service, but such supervision will not release said village from any responsibility for the proper installation and maintenance thereof, or create any liability on the part of said city growing out of such installation or maintenance on account of wastage or leakage of water.

(c) That said village shall have the right to use said water for all municipal purposes and supply the same to the inhabitants thereof, and also to persons in the vicinity of said village, upon reasonable terms, it being provided in said contract that the furnishing of water to persons outside of said village shall be upon terms and conditions subject to the approval and control of the director of public service of said city.

(d) That the said city of Columbus shall not be liable to the said village or any of its inhabitants for any failure or shortage of water supply due to any cause whatsoever.

(e) That the said village shall pay to the city of Columbus at the office of the division of water for water so furnished at the same rate, plus ten per cent, as that charged resident consumers of said city as is now fixed or may hereafter be fixed by ordinance of this council.

(f) That meter readings shall be taken, when the service begins and thereafter, on the first days of April and October of each year, and at the termination of this contract, showing the amount of water furnished during the period since the last reading, and payment shall be made by said village to the cashier of the water works of said city for the amount so furnished, within thirty days after said dates at the rates hereinbefore mentioned.

(g) That should said village at any time fail to make such payment within thirty days after same becomes due, the city shall cut off the supply of water without notice, and said contract shall thereupon become void at the option of the director of public service, or council of the city of Columbus, Ohio.

(h) That upon the annexation of said village to the city of Columbus, Ohio, all pipes and mains theretofore laid or constructed at the expense of said village shall become the property of the city of Columbus and shall thereafter be managed by the director of public service of said city.

(i) Said contract shall provide that the council of the city of Columbus reserves the right to terminate said contract by resolution and the giving of one year's notice if within said time upon request of the said city council said village does not submit and its voters approve its annexation to the city of Columbus.

Sec. 2. That this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, Bill Moose, a resident of Franklin county and probably the last surviving member of the Wyandotte tribe of Indians, is about 100 years of age and in poor health; and

Whereas, he is desirous of being buried, at the time of his decease, on land along the Scioto river formerly owned and used by his forefathers as hunting grounds; and

Whereas, the city of Columbus is the owner of a considerable portion of both banks of the Scioto river north of and in the vicinity of the city of Columbus; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the council of the city of Columbus:

That permission is hereby granted that at the decease of Bill Moose, probably the last surviving member of the Wyandotte tribe of Indians, his remains may be buried in lands owned by the city of Columbus along the Scioto river; that said remains shall be buried in a vault hermetically sealed
