AN ORDINANCE No. 311-41—To grant permission to Edward E. Smotkin to cause the improvement of Joyce avenue from Hudson street to a point north of the north line of Arlington avenue.

Whereas, Edward E. Smotkin is contemplating the construction of dwellings abutting on Joyce avenue as a part of the national defense housing program, and

Whereas, an emergency exists in that the construction of such dwellings cannot proceed until such time as improvements are made to said Joyce avenue; now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the council of the city of Columbus:

Section 1. That, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter stipulated, the right and privilege be and it is hereby granted to Edward E. Smotkin, 61 Goodale street, to cause the improvement of Joyce avenue, from Hudson street to a point north of the north line of Arlington avenue, by grading, constructing storm sewers, together with the necessary drainage facilities, laying water main and water services, installing fire hydrants, constructing a 6 inch compacted waterbound macadam base course, together with a 2 inch bituminous concrete wearing surface, and by constructing concrete curbs and gutters, all in accordance with the plans and specifications marked drawer D-1175, on file in the office of the director of public service, which are hereby approved.

Said Edward E. Smotkin shall pay the entire cost of such improvement, shall save the city of Columbus free and harmless from any and all claims for damages arising or growing out of said improvement and shall defend at his own cost any and all suits which may be brought against the said city because of such improvement.

The cost of repaving over trenches in the existing roadway shall be borne by said Edward E. Smotkin and such repaving shall be done to the entire satisfaction of the chief engineer of said city.

Said Edward E. Smotkin shall execute a written agreement with the division of water of the city of Columbus, Ohio, covering the cost of purchasing and laying water mains and water services and shall deposit with the city treasurer, to the credit of the maintenance and repair No. 65—Joyce avenue, Hudson street to a point north of the north line of Arlington avenue fund, the sum of $500 to cover the cost of inspection and incidental expense, and in addition thereto shall deposit a sum of money sufficient to cover the cost of purchasing materials necessary and labor performed in installing fire hydrants, and shall at his own expense purchase the necessary fire hydrants in accordance with specifications approved by the division of fire of said city.

Sec. 2. That the grade of said street shall be established as of record on plan marked drawer D-1175, on file in the office of the chief engineer.

Sec. 3. That for the reasons stated in the preamble hereto, which is hereby made a part hereof, this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and ever, that said Edward E. Smotkin shall agree, in writing, to the terms and conditions of this ordinance immediately upon passage and shall pay the cost of publication thereof, otherwise said ordinance shall be without force and effect.
