

PLAT
of
WINNERS SUBN
20 4 X

I do hereby certify that the above Plat and affidavit is a true copy of the original as the same as surveyed by me May 27th A.D. 1890. That said lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 are here shown are correct and do truly represent the original Plat of said lots to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Halter Brauns,
Deputy Co. Surveyor

State of Ohio
Franklin County S.D.

Halter Morrison of lawful age being one John L. Winner of a tract or parcel of ground lying at what is now the intersection of Broad Street and Winner Avenue in the City of Columbus, Ohio, and of other ground lying on the east side of Winner Avenue up to Long Street and north of said Long Street; that on or about said date he employed B. B. Bowen, Civil Engineer, to make a survey of said premises, and to lay the same out into lots as an addition to the City of Columbus, Ohio, under the name of Winner's Second Addition to said City of Columbus; that after the property had been laid out by said Bowen, as aforesaid; a plat was made thereof, and was duly acknowledged and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Franklin County, Ohio, in Plat Book No. 2, pages 304 and 305 of the records thereof, that said plat so recorded as aforesaid was an exact copy of the plat as it was originally made by B. B. Bowen & Co., and that the plat of John L. Winner's second Addition hereto attached marked "A" and made part of this affidavit is an exact copy of said original plat, as it was recorded by me in the Recorder's Office of said Franklin County Ohio, and that the same made any changes in said plat except at the point where Winner Ave. now intersects by Long St and said changes are now recorded on the Records of said Recorder's Office. Witness further say that the original plat of said Winner so recorded by him as aforesaid, has been lost, and that he has no knowledge of its present whereabouts.

Halter Morrison
Sworn to before me by and said Halter Morrison, and by him signed on my presence this 25th day of April, A.D. 1890.
Charles Brown, Notary Public, Franklin County, Ohio
